

Tuesday, April 1

- With Colorectal Cancer, Early Detection Saves Lives - 6:00pm
-

With Colorectal Cancer, Early Detection Saves Lives

Time: 6:00pm

Dr. Andrew Stevens, General Surgeon at Southwestern Medical Center, will provide an overview on colorectal cancer and related screenings at a special lecture that is free to the community. He will discuss:

- Colon and rectal cancer conditions
- Screenings (along with their recommended frequency and pros and cons)
- Risk factors

For more information, email mary.towe@swmconline.com or call 580-531-4740.